Powers and Functions of the State Board of Physical Education

At present we have Goa, Daman and Diu State Council of Sports for advising the Govt. on the matter pertaining to the development of various games and sports which is normally meant for the activities which are not directly related to the Physical Education activities in the educational institutions.

Now a need is felt to constitute the Board of Physical Education on the line of the one existing in the Maharashtra State, to advise Govt. on all matters pertaining to Physical Education and also on the following points:—

- 1) To advise Government on all matters pertaining to Physical Education for students as well as non-students youth in the Union Territory.
- 2) To promote Physical Education for adults in rural as well as urban areas through propaganda and publicity measures.
- 3) To encourage the development and improvement of Gymnasia, Akhadas and other institutions for Indigenous Physical Education in all parts of the Union Territory.
- 4) To promote the Yogic System in the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu and to recommend measures for its popularisation.
- 5) To recommend measures for reorganising and/or improving course and programmes in physical education for the different age groups.
- 6) To encourage desirable literature in the field of Physical Education.
- 7) To advise Government on all matters concerning promotion of the Physical Education in Secondary Schools of the Union Territory with special reference to:
 - i) Training of teachers.
 - ii) Conduct of Re-Orientation Courses, Refresher Courses, etc.
 - iii) Framing rules and regulations for the implementation of the Physical Education in Secondary Schools.
 - iv) Framing recommendations for the development of facilities in schools for implementation of Physical Education.
 - v) Framing syllabi for training of teachers as well as for school children and suggesting such amendments as may be necessary in the same from time to time.
- 8) To advise Government on the effective administration and supervision of Physical Education.
